After lunch, continue with a walk through the center of Furnas parish, where you can find the fumaroles and taste carbonated mineral waters ("Água Azeda"). When returning to Ponta Delgada, you should do it along the north coast, passing by the Pico do Ferro viewpoint and the Gorreana Tea Factory.

You can also try a locally-made pineapple liqueur at the end of the visit. Then, visit Sete Cidades village and stop on the shore of Sete Cidades Lake to enjoy an incredible view of the blue lagoon. Then, stop at Fogo Lake Viewpoint and head to Ribeira Grande City. Finally, we recommend a short walk in the historical center to admire the local architecture and taste traditional liqueurs.
